ABOUT THE CONCERT

Excessive Noise presents not just the notes.

not just the notes is a collective dedicated to performing themed concerts with an emphasis on new music and cross-disciplinary collaboration. “Green Paw” is the title of the inaugural concert, which aims to raise awareness of humans’ interactions with the environment.

Excessive Noise is an occasional concert series hosted by the Fine Arts Library. Directed by Russell Podgorsek, the series provides students with an opportunity to perform chamber and solo works beyond those required by their degree programs, and for the premiere of original works beyond the classroom. While generally in the classical vein, Excessive Noise features work from a variety of traditions and perspectives.
